Summer Exhibitions

“Cruising Southern Waters” American Society of Marine Artists (ASMA). Since its founding in 1978, the ASMA has brought together some of America’s most talented contemporary artists in the marine art field, whose purpose is to recognize and promote marine art and maritime history. Sailboats, sunrises, seas and everything with a water connection can be seen in this special exhibition of artists from across the country. READ MORE...

“Light in the Landscape” Artist Amanda Lovett comments on her exhibit as "a journey being led by light. For me painting is not about the object but the challenge of capturing that moment when the light is at its peak, it’s most intriguing. The most ordinary subjects can come to life, if only for a few minutes. My desire is to express the simple details that make those moments exceptional." View Amanda’s website, CLICK HERE.

The 35th Annual Quinlan Visual Arts Center Gala was presented by Willis Investment Counsel. Each spring, the Gala fine art auction benefits the Quinlan.

Gala 2013 was a sold-out event honoring special Artist Guest of Honor Jay Kemp, who was also the featured painter at the 2013 South-eastern Wildlife Exposition in Charleston, SC. The black tie event featured a signature cocktail, the classic and elegant Mint Julep, recipe provided by Dr. Bill and Jill Clark from Waycross, GA. It was served in a sterling cup, inspiring the original oil painting by Flowery Branch artist Bert Beirne, depicting both the cocktail and the décor of the evening. Over 200 attendees purchased art in both a live and a silent auction.

A sold out crowd enjoys fine dining and live auction.

Carole Ann Daniel Medallion Award recipient.

Special "Medallion Awards", cast bronze medallions designed by the late Bob Owens, were presented to outstanding patrons of the arts Carole Ann Daniel and Richard and Phyllis Leet. The Medallion Award tradition that began in 1992 to honor special members who have served the Quinlan with distinction.

YMAS competition

The 2013 American Society of Marine Artists (ASMA) South Regional Exhibition included the Young Marine Artists Search (YMAS) competition of artworks submitted from Gainesville high school and college students. At the opening reception on June 13, ASMA signature members Bob Semler, Val Sendell and Anne Brodie Hill selected award winners. There was a three-way tie for first place Anna Brunton (University of North Georgia) "Lanier Sunset" watercolor, Charles Calkins (Gainesville High School) "Snapper in Motion" bronze sculpture and Lauren Wassell (Gainesville High School) "Sunhippie" a pen and gouache painting. Each student won a YMAS First Place ribbon, certificate, $50 ASMA catalog, one year ASMA student membership, and a signed Anne Brodie Hill print.

Arty "Attendance" Party

In collaboration with the Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce, the Quinlan is proud to be part of the Partners in Education program. The Quinlan arranged for a free incentive-based trip to a class that has the best attendance in the first semester of the year from each of the city elementary schools. Ceramic project, guided Art Hunt tour and ice cream was provided to the winning classes. Thank you to sponsors Publix Super Markets Charities, Davens Ceramic Center, Truelove Dairy and instructor Mary Hull.

Family "Q" Day

The Quinlan's FIRST FREE Family Q Day in May was packed with art activities for everyone. Families explored our galleries and participated in many art projects including "wrong-handed" family portraits, painting and sketch club. In the ceramics studio, Jared Kaup performed wheel demonstrations while folks got their hands dirty making pottery owls. Raku firing and art camp preview project was well received by over 200 visitors! Mark your calendars for October 5th, 1PM—4PM for our next Family "Q" Day!

66th Annual Members' Exhibition

The most popular tradition in the history of the Quinlan Visual Arts Center, the annual Members' Exhibition showcases the work of the myriad of member-artists from Gainesville and surrounding North Georgia communities, Atlanta and the Southeast. Each year of celebration marks yet another season of unparalleled excellence in visual arts programming and celebrates the artists that contribute to that level of excellence. For more information on how you can participate, CLICK HERE.

Volunteer/internship opportunities

Quinlan Visual Arts Center is currently seeking interns. Students requiring academic credit and real-world experience can benefit from organizational tasks including but not limited to: exhibition installation and preparation, project research, website and social media maintenance, children's programs, special events and marketing. Call 770-536-2575 for more information or CLICK HERE.
