

OIL PAINTERS OF AMERICA

2021 NATIONAL SALON SHOW | JUNE 10 THROUGH AUGUST 7

AT THE QUINLAN VISUAL ARTS CENTER

PATT BALDINO

Patt Baldino is a gifted artist whose award winning work has been widely exhibited throughout the United States. Dramatic paintings reflect her impressive technical skills and keen eye for composition. A pinpoint of light on a glass or a play of shadows in her rich palette invites us to explore her work in greater depth.

After graduating from the High School of Art and Design, Patt received a BFA from the School of Visual Arts in New York City. Studied at Grand Central Atelier, Art Students League and National Academy School of Fine Arts.

Patt paints her florals, still lifes and birds in oils. Patt aims to capture the personality and the life-force of her birds, and to give the viewer something to contemplate upon. Through her paintings, Baldino love of nature and responding to what she finds beautiful to communicate this through the medium of oil paint. Her paintings have been juried into international shows including being a semi-finalist the past two years in the Art Renewal Center (ARC) international competitions, Best of Show from CAFA, Oil Painters of America, International Guild of Realism, Salon International and many awards from the Salmagundi Club Exhibition to name a few. Her work can be found in private collections throughout the United States.
